

GOLDEN WEDDING OF MR GORDON DAVID

Former Combworks' Sales Manager

Fifty-four years of continuous service with the Aberdeen Combwork Co., Ltd., is the record of Mr Gordon David of 19 Chestnut Row, Aberdeen, who, with Mrs David, celebrated his golden wedding yesterday afternoon in the Caledonian Hotel. A company of forty relatives from all parts of the country gathered to congratulate them.

Mr David entered the service of the Aberdeen Combworks Co., Ltd., as a boy. When he retired six and a half years ago he held the position of sales manager. During his association with the firm he served under four heads. They were Mr John Stewart, Sir David Stewart, Col. D. B. D. Stewart, and Mr David Stewart.

His parting gift from the firm was a magnificently bound album containing the portraits of the four heads with whom he had been associated.

Mr David, in the course of his business, travelled extensively in this country and in Europe, and was well-known in the comb trade.

ABERDEEN BRIDE WEARS PARCHMENT SATIN